

Penmanship Paper

The classic three-line penmanship ruling — solid top, dotted middle, red base.

The image shows a full page of penmanship paper. It features ten identical sets of horizontal lines, each set consisting of three lines: a solid blue top line, a dotted blue middle line, and a solid red bottom line. These sets are arranged vertically down the page, providing a template for practicing cursive handwriting.